Collector Alignment Tools

Once upon a time you had to tack weld your collector to the engine or the frame in order to have something to aim for when building your headers. Here's a better idea! These fixtures give you a reusable tool that saves you from messing up your collector and is also easier to use. Now you can slip tubing and bends through the fixture, mark it, then make your cut. You can't do that when using a collector as your aiming point! 100% reusable! Buy 4 for $50 and save $10! Mix-and-match any size or style is ok!
